

Join us as we gather to reflect upon recent events here at home and abroad, our individual and collective roles in our community, and how we can draw strength from our diverse perspectives. Unified in our purpose to be an inclusive community. Driven by mutual respect. Committed to the goals of social justice and peace. Together, we will celebrate these core, shared values through a broad range of WashU voices — including students, faith leaders, and university leadership.

Reflections: Unity, Social Justice & Peace

Monday, August 29, 2016 | 4:00 PM

(Doors open at 3:30 PM)

Graham Chapel

Reception immediately following in Tisch Commons at the Danforth University Center