

What is the CCHP?

The CCHP, aka “chip,” is a Department of History co-curricular initiative that serves undergraduates considering careers in policy as well as the greater Wash U and St. Louis communities seeking historically informed discussion about global events.

Features:

- Speaker Series
- International Relations Round Table
- Connections to Career Center
- Campus and STL-wide Public Forum

CRISIS & CONFLICT
in Historical Perspective

Dr. Krister Knapp
CCHP Executive Coordinator
kknapp@wustl.edu
pages.wustl.edu/knapp
o: 314-935-6838

Spring 2019 Speaker Series & Public Forum

“Withdrawing from Afghanistan: What Happens Next?”

Seth G. Jones

Director, Transnational Threats Project
Senior Advisor, International
Security Program

Center for Strategic and International Studies

Author of *In the Graveyard of Empires:
America's War in Afghanistan*

Thursday Feb. 21, 2019
6-7:30 PM
Umrath Hall, Lounge

Light refreshments will be served.

Forums are open to all in the Washington University and Greater St. Louis community.

The CCHP is generously sponsored and funded by the Office of the Dean of Faculty of Arts and Sciences at Washington University in St. Louis.